Dear Year 5 Parents,

I am sure you have all met the newest member of the Y5 team, Miss Gollogly. She has settled in class well and is working hard to get to know Wolves class.

This term in school is another busy one with usual summer term antics! Our enquiry question for this half term is: 'Is nature always on our side?' We will be exploring the concepts of Change, Beauty, Conflict and Sustainability.

Homework will resume from this week.

The children started swimming last week and the successful thank you for remembering all of their kit! We hope they returned home with everything. Swimming will continue until half term.
